All Are Invited to Pray at a Catholic Father's Day Procession and Rosary

[City, State, Date]—A Eucharistic procession and rosary will be held on [Date] at [Location] at [time]. Sponsored by [sponsoring parish], the procession is open to the public, and all are encouraged to attend. This event, part of the nationwide Catholic Father's Day movement, is prayerful, non-political and family-friendly.

As part of the Year of St. Joseph this event is being planned by local organizers. Clergy will lead the procession and everyone is invited to pray. "When we bring Our Lord and the Blessed Mother out of the churches and into the streets of America we create a powerful witness for all families," said event organizer [Local leader name].

[Notable attendees/speakers (bishop, priests, speakers)] will be part of the event, to pray and offer encouragement. "This is a time for prayerful reflection—a time to give witness to fathers that people of all races and beliefs can come together under the watchful eye of Our Lord through the intercession of the Blessed Mother and St. Joseph," said [local organizing team member], part of the local organization team.

The route is approximately [length of route], with ample parking. Please contact [Event Contact Person] at [phone number] or [email address].

About Catholic Father's Day

Catholic Father's Day, founded by the laity, is to inspire Catholic men to their great and noble call as Catholic fathers by holding annual Father's Day events in June each year. These family-friendly events call the faithful together to pray for and honor fathers. See more at
